

Opening Doors:

Sharing Spiritual and Philosophical Life at

TUFTS

Join the religious and philosophical communities at Tufts for:

- Interfaith-friendly worship services, meditations, and gatherings with explanations and Q & A
- Respectfully witness diverse spiritual practices
- Learn about different religions and philosophies and build relationships

Find us on Facebook by searching “Tufts Opening Doors” for more information and updated programming.

Calendar of Events

Interfaith Jummah with the Muslim Students Association

Friday, February 19, 12:30 pm, Interfaith Center

Text a (French) Toastie with CSWPB

Saturday, February 20, 8 pm to 12am

Introduction to Mindfulness Meditation with Venerable Upali

Monday, February 22, 12 pm, Goddard Chapel

Unitarian Universalist Meeting

Wednesday, February 24, 8 pm, Goddard Chapel

Why Did God Have to Die? with Non-Denominational Christian Fellowship

Thursday, February 25, 7:30 pm, SoGo Multipurpose Room

Interfaith Shabbat with Tufts Hillel

Friday, February 26, 6 pm Services and 7:15 pm Dinner, Hillel

Protestant Students Association Interfaith Worship Service

Sunday, February 28, 7 pm, Goddard Chapel

Hindu Students Council Puja

Monday, February 29, 9 pm, Goddard Chapel

Tufts Freethought Society: Harry Potter as a Sacred Text with Vanessa Zoltan

Thursday, March 3, 7:30 pm, Eaton 202

Why Do I Need God? with Non-Denominational Christian Fellowship

Thursday, March 3, 7:30 pm, SoGo Multipurpose Room

Catholic Community at Tufts Interfaith Mass

Sunday, March 13, 9:30 pm Mass 101 and 10 pm Mass, Goddard Chapel

---

What should I wear?

For most programs, casual, respectable clothing is recommended. Feel free to ask about specific requirements.

Should I participate in the practice?

Respectfully observe or engage to the extent you are comfortable. Feel free to ask about any limitations.

Where can I find more information?

Facebook or email chaplaincy@tufts.edu

in • ter • faith [in-ter-feyth]

adjective

of, operating, or occurring between persons of different belief systems

